PLAY SOFTBALL FOR DESTINY

505 N. Cedar St
Horicon, WI 53032

To whom it may concern,

The 3rd annual Play Softball for Destiny event is scheduled for Saturday September 12, 2020 at Riverbend Park. We are requesting to have the $30 park fee and $50 security deposit waived, but if not, we have enclosed a check to pay for the facilities.

19-year-old Destiny Claire Kogler-Reinwald was a model citizen of Horicon. She was the oldest of 5 siblings and was a born leader. During her high school years, she was actively involved in FFA, volleyball and softball. She also helped manage Horicon High Schools wrestling program, was a waitress at Nora's restaurant and worked at a local goat farm, all while going to school to pursue her dream of becoming an RN.

Tragically, Destiny was killed due to injuries sustained in a car accident March 9th, 2017. Her family has honored her memory by setting up the DESTINY CLAIRE KOGLER-REINWALD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND. This scholarship will be awarded to a graduating senior of Horicon High School pursuing a Medical or Agricultural degree.

This tournament brings together local families, friends and fans of the game to watch 12 teams playing for Destiny. Also, there will be food, beverages, and sponsors to help raise money for Destiny's memorial fund which pledges to donate all proceeds in Destiny's honor. Our goal is to raise over $5,000 and we are looking for your help.

Any questions or concerns please let me know.
